Thou hast twice saved the child of thy foe--first from shame, then from famine. Thou wouldst have saved my dread lord from open force, and dark murder; but the saints were wroth, the blood of my kinsfolk, shed by his hand, called for vengeance, and the shrines he had pillaged and burned murmured doom from their desolate altars. Peace be with the dead, and peace with the living! I shall go back to my father and brethren; and if the fame and life of child and sister be dear to thorn, their swords will never more leave their sheaths against Harold. So thy hand, and God guard thee! Iluroid raised to his lips the hf.nd...
