Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Reminiscences of Thought and Feeling, Vol. 1 As there are portions of this little work, which perhaps, in the opinion of some readers, would have been better omitted, or at all events, left to take their chance of publication after the writer s decease, it may be proper for me to state, that, although it has long been impressed upon my mind that a sketch of the leading features of my religious experience, might be useful to some of my fellow creatures, I had not the slightest idea of introducing it in this volume, when I began to write it; nor, for some time afterwards. I was insensibly led into the undertaking, and seemed to myself to be in the fulfilment of a duty, in proceeding with it.
