I d love tr set up housekeeping in that blasted old de Beaujeu quarters. I d like to do a month s fishing, and hunting and courting about here. Where would you have better, lad? and what more lovely courting material could you find than Captain Pipe s sweet daughter? Blamed if she isn t the-- Yes, yes! but do you think, sir, Braddock will lake the fort so easy? There s a deal of Indians camping aroimd, and all seem very confident hereabouts. Look here, Jimmy! you and I ll have to quarrel, straight, if you even hint that doubt again. You don t know Braddock; why, I ve seen him, in Hyde Park, wheel and turn and manoeuvre his Cold Streams in a space no bigger than a parlor floor, and never a jar,...
