The present publication is an entirely new departure from the beaten paths of voluminous works. It treats especially the subject indicated in its title. Probably no one has felt the need of a work of this character more than the writer. In making a life business of Natural History, I receive numerous inquiries of the following nature - often, written on postal cards: Please describe the eggs of the following birds for me; also state the location where I am likely to find their nests, i. e., Carolina Wren, Red-tailed Hawk, Kingfisher, Blue-yellow-backed Warbler, and be...
