Skeens Case. time to time with the bank. They gave us no receipt for the securities so lodged, and there is no record that I am aware of to shew what securities were so lodged from time to time. The bank was generally in advance to us. Upon each occasion when we made deposits with the bank there was an understanding between us and the bankers as to the amount to be placed to our credit, and this amount was calculated upon the estimated amount of the securities we lodged. Our account was not made up at the bank except half yearly, viz. , on the last day of June and the last day of December in each year....
