It has for its object the promotion of the Science of Mankind - Anthropology - by the accumulation of observations bearing on man s past history and present state in all parts of the globe. It investigates, in a rigorously exact manner, everything that can throw light upon the laws of man s nature: his origin, history, and capabilities of progressive development and civilization. It studies him structurally and psychologically, under the several types in which he is found in various regions; and comparatively, in relation to the rest of the animal kingdom. The ultimate object of the Institute, therefore, is to build up a Science of Man on a basis of well-ascertained fact, and logically deduced inference. As means to this end, the Council of the Institute has adopted a plan of operations, the principal heads of which are as follow: - 1. Meetings for the reading of papers and for discussion of anthropological questions. 2. The issue of a Journal containing Reports of the Proceedings at the Meetings, with other matters of anthropological interest. 3. The appointment of Local Correspondents in all parts of the world to collect information, and to aid the Institute in its operations. 4. The maintenance of a library, which contains sets of all the principal Anthropological Journals published in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, besides a large and valuable collection of books of reference, travels and researches, an extensive collection of...
